

Cascade Winds Auction – Second Chance

It's been three weeks since our awesome Winds concert and silent auction. My thanks to all of you that participated. We are left with several lonely items that didn't go home with any one. So I'm giving them a second chance. Please check out the following items. If you are interested there is no bidding, just first come first served with a set price.

Find something you like? Email me with the item number in the subject and I will coordinate with you.

ITEM 1 – Conduct the Winds $300

If you've been attending our concerts this year, you will remember seeing a "guest" conductor every concert. Whether you have musical knowledge or you just want to wave your arms around, we welcome your presence on our podium. Michael Gesme will coach you during our dress rehearsal. It's a unique experience – for yourself or a friend. No age limit.

ITEM 3 – Doll House $450

Erik Hoagland, a trombone performer with the Winds, has hand crafted this beautiful doll house. He named it the 'Beachside Bungalow' and it is a 1" to 1' scale model. Erik will deliver this fabulous house anywhere in Central Oregon. It's a perfect birthday gift. If you are feeling generous but have no children or grand-children, please consider donating this to one of the local children's charities. It will be gratefully accepted and cherished.

ITEM 6 – Camp Cooking $60

Stephanie Seed, our string bass performer, has been associated with scouting her entire life. She is a highly decorated scout leader, and has recently created the first all-girl 'Boy Scout' pack here in Bend. Do you have a child that's a scout at any level? Or are you interested in taking your personal outdoor cooking skills to a new level? Stephanie will coach you through the meal planning and costs. Then you bring the food and she will bring the dutch oven and other cooking necessities and together you will feast on an awesome meal. Please limit this to four students or one family.

ITEM 11 – Illustrations by Paul Leighton $75 each

Artist Paul Leighton is the husband of our harp performer, Laura. Paul has won the competition for the Pole, Peddle, Paddle logo four times. His illustrations may be seen all over Bend, and has a very distinctive style. Paul is influenced by the Art Deco travel posters of the 20's and 30's, but his settings have a more contemporary feel. In fact his style has been describes as "vintage with a modern twist". He has created illustrations for Northwest Artmall, The High Desert Museum, Deschutes Historical Museum, Visit Bend, 1859 magazine, and sporting events including the Pole Pedal Paddle, Cascade Gran Fondo and Bend Marathon.

The illustrations are Cascades, Deschutes, and Sno-Park. Each illustration is 11x17, unframed, and signed in the back by the artist. Be sure to indicate which illustration you are interested in purchasing.

ITEM 33 – Animal Beanies $20 each or all 3 for $50

These adorable beanies were hand crafted by our oboe performer, Alison Weatherhead. Perfect for the young person in your life. Mouse, lamb, and fish – these knitted caps make great gifts. Be sure to indicate which beanie you are interested in purchasing.

ITEM 35 – Painting ‘4 Celli’ $85

This is a 16x24 print produced from an original acrylic painting by local Bend artist Kathleen Kerins. It features four whimsical performers giving an outdoor concert to an attentive dog and cat. The frame is not included.

ITEM 36 – German Document Translation $50

Karen Shepard, a flute performer with the Winds, wants to take your German family document or letter and translate it. Unlock that mystery document that has been tucked away. Old German script is no problem.
